University

USU students travel all over the country during their last two and a half years and greatly benefit from local faculty encouragement and support. Would you like to be a more integrated mentor for USU students rotating at your site and connect with other faculty? Would you like to increase your Professional Service to USU? Consider becoming a Wellness Guide for the USU Wellbeing Program. For more information contact Dr. Lisa Moores at lisa.moores@usuhs.edu

Leadership changes at USU

- Congratulations to LTC(P) Troy Tagg, USA, for being selected as the new Chair of Neurology. Since graduating from medical school in 2001, he completed his residency in Neurology and two subsequent fellowships in Neuro-ophthalmology and Clinical Neuro-immunology. He currently is the Chief of Neurology at WRNMMC. He will transition to USU late Spring or early Summer.
- Congratulations to Dr. Drew Fallis, DDS (Col, USAF, Ret) for being selected as the first Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs for the Postgraduate Dental College. He has a long career in the Air Force with numerous positions such as Tri-Service Orthodontic Residency Program Director at Lackland AFB, Chair of the Department of Orthodontics, and Consultant for Orthodontics to the Air Force Surgeon General, prior to his last position as the Dean, Air Force Postgraduate Dental School. His new position will strengthen collaborative faculty development opportunities between the two Schools.
