NMFDC Stakeholder Engagement Efforts

The NMFDC's Stakeholder Engagement Sessions continue to bring Navy leaders from across the enterprise together to discuss updated readiness metrics tracking and visualization efforts through the Naval Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities (NKSA) Proficiency Dashboard

- Briefed leaders at EMF Djibouti and discussed solutions for workload capture information that is not currently tracked in authoritative data systems

- Briefed leaders at Naval Medical Readiness Training Command (NMRTC) Camp Pendleton to discuss Critical Care readiness metrics and continuing readiness visualization efforts

- Outlined path forward for virtual coordination and site visits with NMRTCs/Us to discuss NKSA Proficiency Dashboard metrics and updates

Navy Operational Medicine Clinical Community

The NMFDC is engaging Operational Medicine and Surgical Sub-Communities (SC) for feedback

- Fleet Surgical SC volunteers are providing feedback on NKSA Proficiency Dashboard data views for maritime surgical platform providers

Naval Medical Readiness Criteria Development

Naval Medical Readiness Criteria (NMRC) development efforts continue to progress through stakeholder feedback and annual requirement revalidation

NMRC Development Updates:

- Validated 248 DON Tracker comments on 85 NMRCs

- Routing 44 Phase II NMRCs for Surgeon General signature

NMRC Revalidation Updates:

- Revalidated requirements for 16 of the 41 Phase I NMRC

- Remaining 25 Phase I NMRC expected to be revalidated by JAN 2021

NMRC Medical Service Corps Development Efforts

NMRC validation efforts are ongoing for specialties within the Medical Service Corps, with the help of Specialty Leaders (SLs), the Office of the Corps Chiefs, and subject matter experts (SMEs).

- ✓ 4 Medical Service Corps specialties are visualized in the NKSA Proficiency Dashboard

NMFDC Platform Leader's Virtual Seminar

The NMFDC presented during the Platform Leader's Virtual Seminar (PLVS) to brief deckplate leaders on current readiness metrics efforts and their role in NMRC implementation

NMFDC PLVS Brief Takeaways:

- Reemphasized the role of Platform Leaders in the implementation of Naval Medical Readiness Criteria

- Demonstrated how the NKSA Proficiency Dashboard supports decision making at the deckplate using individual personnel readiness data

- Discussed the importance of readiness data reliability, specifically from Navy data feeds into the NKSA Proficiency Dashboard

Read more about Platform Leaders' roles and responsibilities with the NMFDC Below!

What's to Come

- Naval Medical Readiness Criteria Development and Revalidation Efforts

- Recurring readiness metrics telcons with Navy Medicine stakeholders

- Association of Military Surgeons of the United States (AMSUS) 2020 Panel

- Monthly NMFDC Virtual Site Visits

Map to Success - Platform Leaders and the NMFDC

The responsibilities for Platform Leaders summarized below are included in the Naval Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities Process and Readiness Criteria Implementation Memorandum and support the Surgeon General's priority of Naval Medical personnel meeting and exceeding their operationally focused KSAs

CONFIRM

Platform Leaders confirm the completion of Naval Medical Readiness Criteria of all subordinate personnel

OVERSEE

Platform Leaders provide oversight with NMRTC/U leadership to certify personnel compliance with readiness metrics prior to deployment

COORDINATE

Platform Leaders coordinate and ensure all unit personnel are tracked and current within authoritative data systems

AUTHORIZE

Platform Leaders exercise ultimate authority to determine unit readiness condition
